

ask these property tax questions

- What is the assessed value of the property? Assessed value is usually less than market value.
- My I see a recent copy of the seller's tax bill? This may give you a reasonable idea of the property tax.
- Was there an exemption on the previous owner's taxes? Exemptions are sometimes given to owners who are over 65, veterans, or on a limited income.
- Do I qualify for an exemption?
- Was an assessment done recently?
- How often are reassessments performed?
- Will the property tax increase due to the sale?
- Are the taxes comparable to neighbors' homes of similar size and condition? If not, why not?
- Can I appeal the tax assessment to get lower taxes?
